PRESS RELEASE:

Greetings:

We are pleased to inform you that Silkwood Wines have again won some prestigious GOLD!

The American Wine Society recognized Silkwood's 2001 Syrah Selected Reserve, 2001 Syrah, and 2002 Petite Sirah each with Gold Medals.

Silkwood Wines was awarded by the state of Texas Lone Star International Wine Competition the Grand Star Award which is the Best Of Show for our 2001 Syrah. The Grand Star Award was selected from ALL Gold Medal Winners in the Red Table Wine Class.

In typical Texas fashion this award is a gold plaque riveted on a black Laredo cowboy boot size 9M.

The San Francisco Chronicle newspaper wine competition just awarded Silkwood's 2002 Petite Sirah Best of Class, Double Gold Medal, the only Petite Sirah earning this award.

We are particularly pleased with these awards because the gold medals reflect these wines that come from our vines in the Central Valley California.

Also for your information Silkwood's 2001 Syrah is in the "finals" following several blind tastings of five red wines in Japan Airlines quest for a quality Syrah for their First Class patrons. Our red velvet and gold foil label have obviously appealed to their Asian traditions.

We invite you to go to our web site, www.Silkwoodwines.com to learn more about our "GOLD" wines.

Cheers!
