Silkwood, Cabernet-Syrah, Red Duet, Stanislaus County

Vintner: This specially selected 50-50 blend of Cabernet and Syrah from their vineyards is extraordinary smooth on the back palate, and is designed for most women who prefer a smooth finish.

Us: An exotic hybrid that well merits its Silver Medal awards.

Foppiano, Zinfandel, Dry Creek

Vintner: Offers a huge structure with deep, rich purple color, complex aromas of spices and black pepper, concentrated flavors of ripe berries and chocolate from the inviting nose to a rich, silky finish.

Us: A good value wine, and worth including in your monthly wine selection.

Foppiano Estate Bottled Petite Sirah, Russian River Valley

Vintner: The style pursued by Foppiano is one of forward, aggressive, glorious fruitiness; with toasty oak aromas further enhance the wine's complexity. Luscious black berry fruit dominates this Foppiano wine.

Us: "Spicy and delicious."

Steele Wines Pinot Noir Caneros

Vintner: Cameros Pinot Noir is a flavorful, layered, versatile wine with universal appeal. This has been confirmed by its inclusion in the Wine Spectator's "Top 100 Wines of the Year" in several vintages. The wine shows strawberry and cherry preserves in the nose and on the palate along with well-integrated hints of oak, vanilla, and cassis.

Us: Try it with chocolate!
